

Victory for Paul Strain

The sovereign people of Eastern Oregon have replied to the persecutors of Paul Strain
BY FLOCKING TO THE HUB, Corner Court and Johnson Streets

By the thousands on Saturday, Monday and all this week. The crowds are getting bigger as the people fully begin to realize the enormity of the outrage perpetrated on an American citizen by the Clerks' Union, parading in front of this store, finally ending up by rotten eggs being thrown at

PAUL STRAIN, Oregon's Greatest Clothing Merchant

And a man who has always stood for Justice and Fair Play. On Saturday an old gentleman who crossed the plains in the fifties, came to the Hub with his grandson and told his boy that he had fought for liberty and helped blaze the trail to this glorious West and he wanted his grandson to follow in his footsteps and STRIKE DOWN OPPRESSION. In no matter what guise it ASSAILED THE FREEDOM OF AN AMERICAN CITIZEN. Clergymen, sanctified by their labors of love for mankind; lawyers, profoundly learned in the law; bankers, leading business men, and sweet-voiced women, are calling steadily on me and offering their sympathy for the unspeakable outrage, and assuring me that the entire sympathy of Pendleton's population is unanimously with me, and that I could count on their undivided patronage in the future. Expressions like these are very gratifying indeed, when backed up by the enormous trade that we have received for the past few days. I thank the people most heartily for it.
